

About us

We, Aagam Books International, are a pioneering company dedicated to the development and publication of well-structured, profound and informative textbooks which follow nationally recognised curriculum. Furthermore, we take great care to search for relevant content and in presentation of each book. In our First Idea series, our goal is to publish textbooks that can withstand international standard.

We strongly believe 'the right book in the right hands at the right time can change the world'. After all, engaging textbooks provide more than just information. They can shape a child's character, develop their knowledge and understanding of the world around them and help them to that first rung on the ladder of career building success in the 21st century.

We recognize the importance of education in India and we hope to contribute to its growth and development. We understand the power of ideas and the value of imagination. We believe education should be meant to convey knowledge and wisdom and that good textbooks provide a critical foundation to achieve this goal.

Our editorial expertise involves a creative interaction between authors and editors, which helps create high-quality manuscripts. A strong editorial development process, carried out in close collaboration with the authors, helps enrich the script through competition research, syllabi mapping and addition of pedagogical features such as chapter outlines, live examples, illustrations and exercises. All our main books come along with efficient and effective supporting tool in the form of teacher's manuals. A Paper Generator tool is also available to make teaching enjoyable and better.

Xplorer Educare

“Books are a uniquely portable magic”, keeping this as our good we are striving for innovation and learning every day.

In a country, as culturally diverse as ours, there is a constant need to promote teaching principles such as diversity, skill acquisition, critical thought, inclusion, democracy, value of different perspectives, and self-reflection. Learners should be encouraged to bring aspects of their cultures into the classroom and, thus, allow teachers to support their intellectual and social/emotional growth. At very first, we strive to deliver content that is not only scientifically accurate, but also that stimulates curiosity in the young, impressionable minds and equips them with tools to become better human beings.

We celebrate uniqueness of every child, and it is our endeavour to always support the educators who passionately work in a heterogeneous environment catering to students with varied learning capabilities. This year we have forayed into new avenue “Xplorer” with the objective to give the students a smarter alternative to the conventional study methods.

Our primary objective of this new series “Xplorer” is to empower educators with pedagogical tools so that they can leverage their expertise in shaping the future of their students. Our professional development programmes further our objective of supporting educators by honing their skills and prodding them to encourage learners 'How to think' instead of 'What to think'.

AUGMENTED REALITY APP

The books with Augmented Reality encourage the learners to engage with their educational content. Our books equipped with AR technology are virtually limitless that offer kids an interactive experience that is fun and engaging as well as informational. Featured with augmented reality content, a combination of text, sound, illustrations and 3D images, our book will fascinate children and engage them with an appealing story.
